To live, to work, to know, to strive upward toward intellectual excellence...there is in life a goal which each one must strive for. Now, during the college years one realizes the necessity of purpose. The Ah-Mic has devoted itself to the portraiture of this purpose with the hope that those who are to leave and those who are to remain shall hold in silent remembrance these fleeting, glorious years as the essence of life itself.

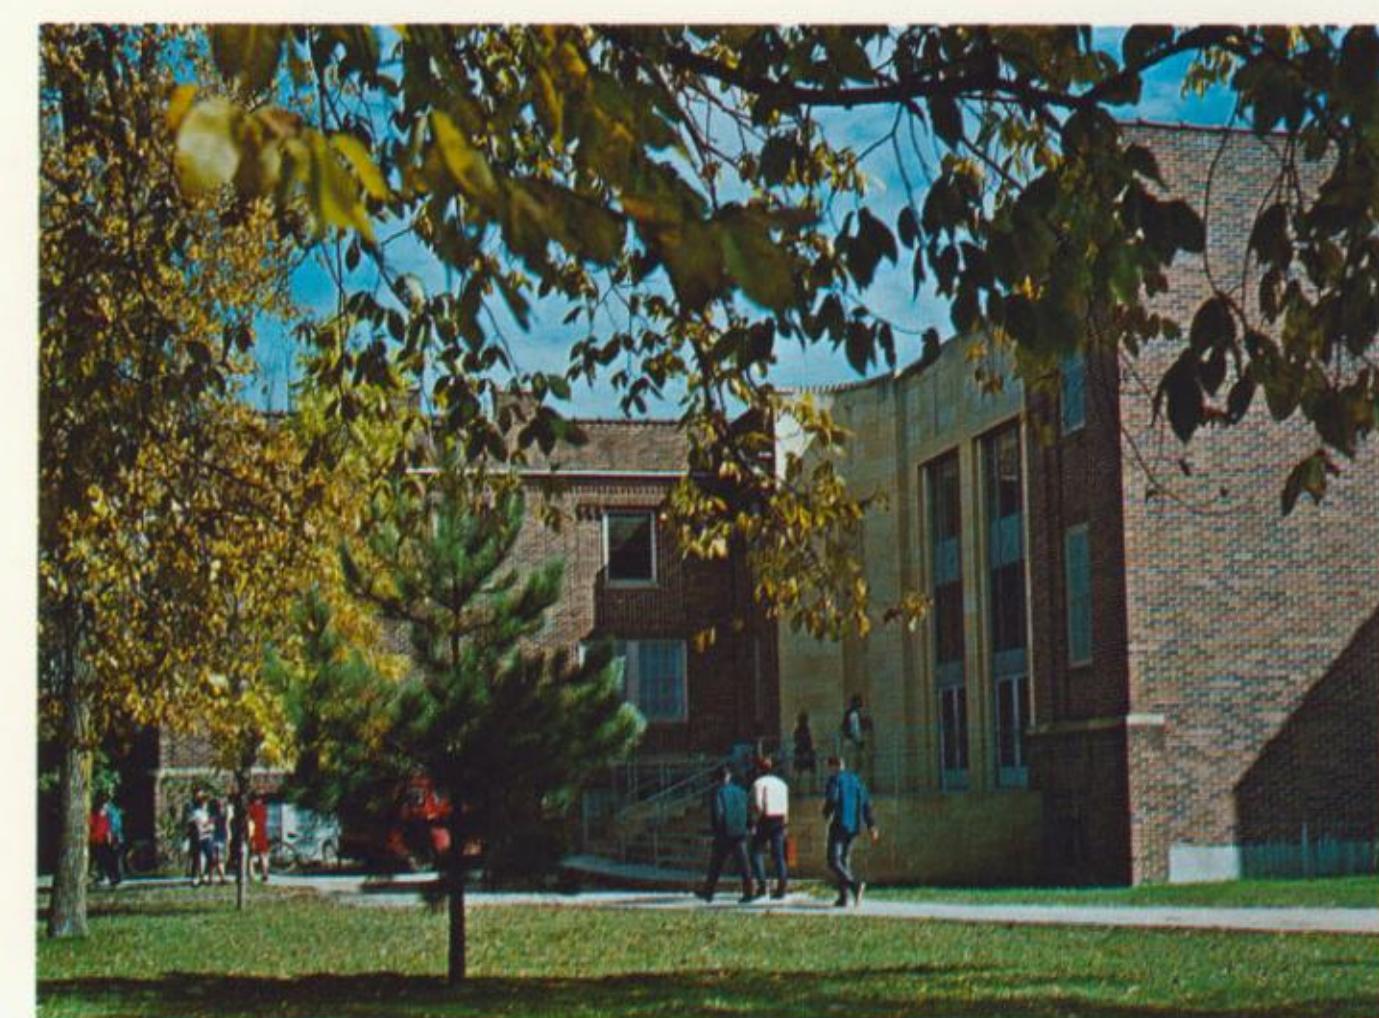

Campus . . .

"All time is eternally present . . ."

T. S. Eliot

Time, in its infinite mercy, takes all but memories. Time not only removes the student from his campus, but displaces him from his haunts, his friends, and sometimes his ambitions . . . this unending time which changes the student, alters the campus. Bemidji State College lifts itself upward, onward to the greater edification of man. Yet, the campus remains crystallized in the memory of the students, for the memories of this campus, of the achievements and joys, of the pain and wanting, shall remain with him through all eternity.

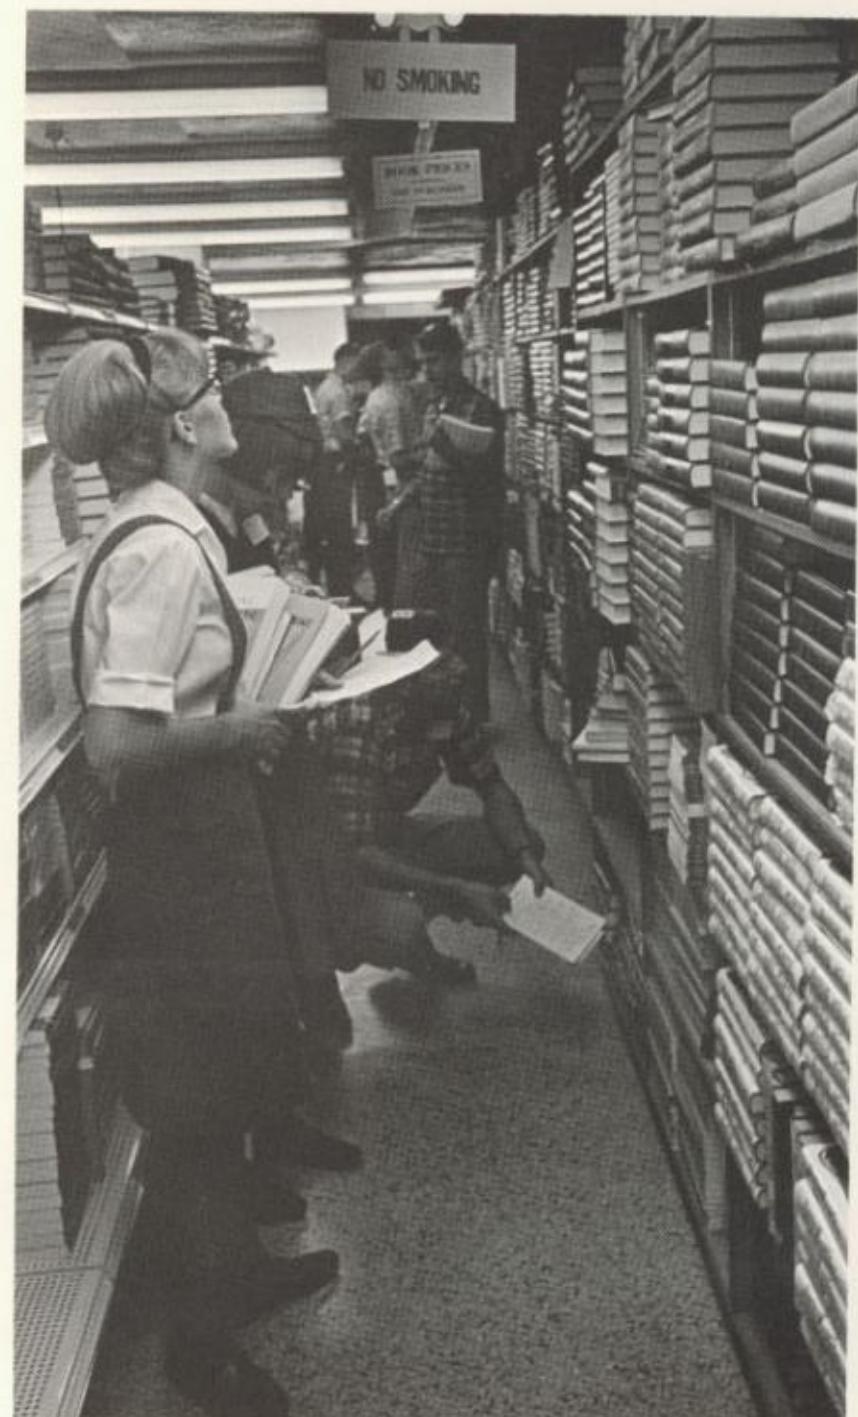

"To know that we know what we know..."

Thoreau

A man in being a man will learn to grasp the supreme gift of knowledge and savor that most precious gift as life itself, for knowledge is life. To work, to discover, to gain knowledge and give it to others...in this man discovers the meaning of the college years...man discovers the meaning of life...

Friends . . .

"So we'll live, and pray, and tell old tales,
And laugh at gilded butterflies?" Shakespeare

Happiness is the most perfect gem which reflects its beauty through all time . . . a touch of laughter . . . a snatch of song . . . a passing brush of friendship imbedded into memory . . . it is the radiance from those who know no age, nor want one . . . it is the solitude of a moment pressed into the flow of eternity . . .

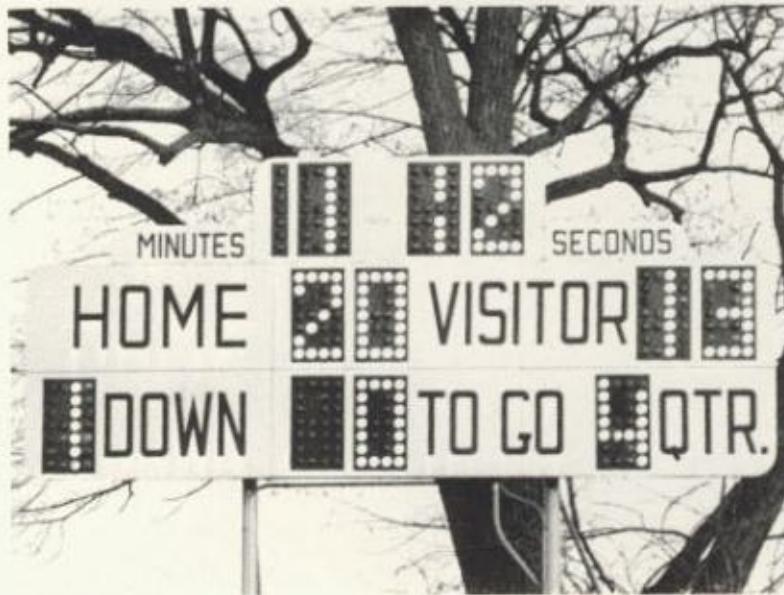

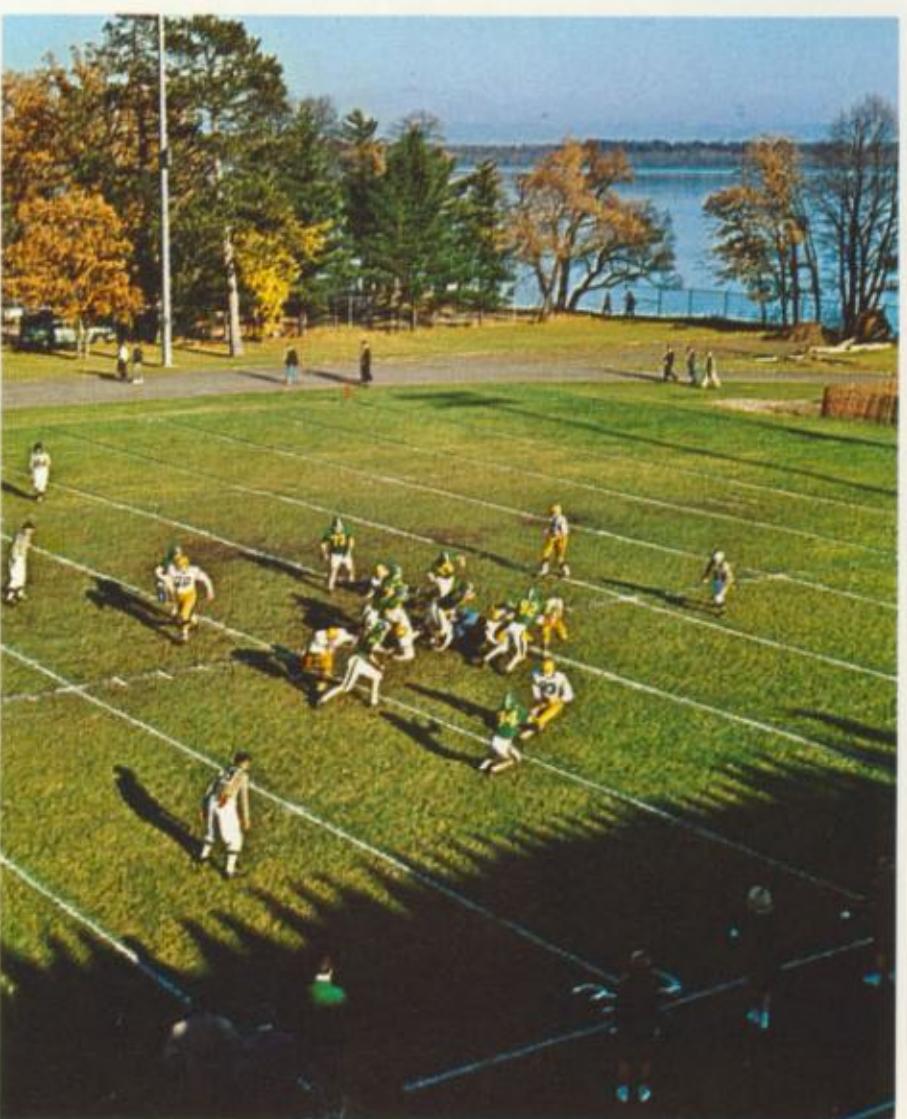

Homecoming

"One hour of glorious life
Is worth an age without a name..."

T. O. Mordaunt

To Queen Bev Koski the week of homecoming shall always be that glorious hour of life. With her attendants, Sue Fischer and Penny Engstrom, she shall call to memory the theme "Krush Kato!"...for life is made of little things, little hours which seem to remain and grow with mellow retrospect through the coming years...these simple unadorned things are in reality the great things of life...

LEADERSHIP

*Editor

DR. and MRS. HARRY F. BANGSBERG

The obligations of a college president are seemingly manifold and endless. His responsibilities are staggering. The decision a president makes must conciliate between the State College Board, the faculty, the administration, and the community. However, his most important responsibility is to the students for whom the institution exists. Because of his youth President Bangsberg is more acutely cognizant of the college student's problems. He must continually broaden his knowledge, alter his outlooks, and be prepared to meet the challenge of this vivacious and changing genera-ation. Personal contact with the many Bemidji State College students appears almost impossible, yet Dr. Bangsberg is aware of the needs and ambitions of the student body. As the president of Bemidji State he must be the physical representative of his community, his school, and his students. His greatest reward lies in the knowledge that he has in some way affected the life of the student; so that the student may grant some contribution to today's modern world. Dr. Bangsberg feels that he can succeed at these duties only with the faithful encouragement of his wife Trudy.

Inauguration

College presidents, state college board members, and state legislators, were only a few of the dignitaries on hand at the inauguration of Bemidji State's fifth president, Dr. Harry F. Bangsberg.

Events of the day included the dedication of Bridgeman Hall, the school's new industry and arts building, at which Edward J. Chilgren, former Koochiching County representative and close friend of Senator Harry A. Bridgeman, served as principal speaker.

Inaugural ceremonies began on April 21, 1965, with the Bemidji State College band presenting a concert preceding the processional. Invocation was given by Reverend Raymond Williams, pastor of the First Lutheran Church of Bemidji. The principal address was delivered by Dr. Leonard Haas, President of Wisconsin State University at Eau Claire. Highlighting the ceremony was the inaugural address "A Necessary Confluence" delivered by Dr. Bangsberg.

Dr. Bangsberg received his B.A. from Luther College at Decorah, Iowa, in 1950 with majors in History and English. In 1951 he acquired his M.A. from the State University of Iowa and completed his doctoral studies in 1957.

After The Inauguration

INAUGURAL BALL

Fred G. Tropman, pioneer Bemidji merchant and former mayor, received the first Distinguished Service Award ever to be presented by Bemidji State College at commencement exercises in June 1965.

Tropman, 92, has contributed nearly $68,000 to the college financial aids fund.

The pioneer merchant came to this country from Bavaria when he was five years old. Leaving school after two years, he worked on a farm for 25 cents a day and before getting his first job as a clerk in a store he was a mason's tender. His first store job paid six dollars a month and he was so small he had a hard time looking over the counter at his customers.

During his career, he bought out 40 stores in Minnesota and North Dakota. He bought his store in Bemidji in 1900 and moved to Bemidji from Fergus Falls in 1910. He is a constant observer of civic affairs and served as mayor of Bemidji from 1950 until 1956.

Deprived of an education himself, Tropman has given the money to the students who were finding difficulty in meeting the financial obstacles that stood in the way of their education.

President Harry F. Bangsberg expressed the thanks of the college to Tropman for his generous gifts.

By virtue of payment of the student activity fee every member of the college community becomes a member of the Student Association of Bemidji State College. Through approved student organizations the students elect representatives to the Student Senate. The Student Senate serves as the student voice of the college, giving opinions of the community. Within the Student Senate the executive council functions as the final opinion of the senate by deliberating and ruling on request by students and faculty.

The Social Board of Governors makes the arrangements for the campus social program, calendar, expenditures, and general social planning. Through the Board of Governors, facilities such as the Bemidji Town and Country Golf Club, the Paul Bunyan Theater productions, and a variety of activities are made available to the college student.

Campus Analysis presents to the college community a close-up of campus activities and problems. Through the local radio station, KBUN, campus personalities are interviewed, issues discussed and ideas presented to the general public.

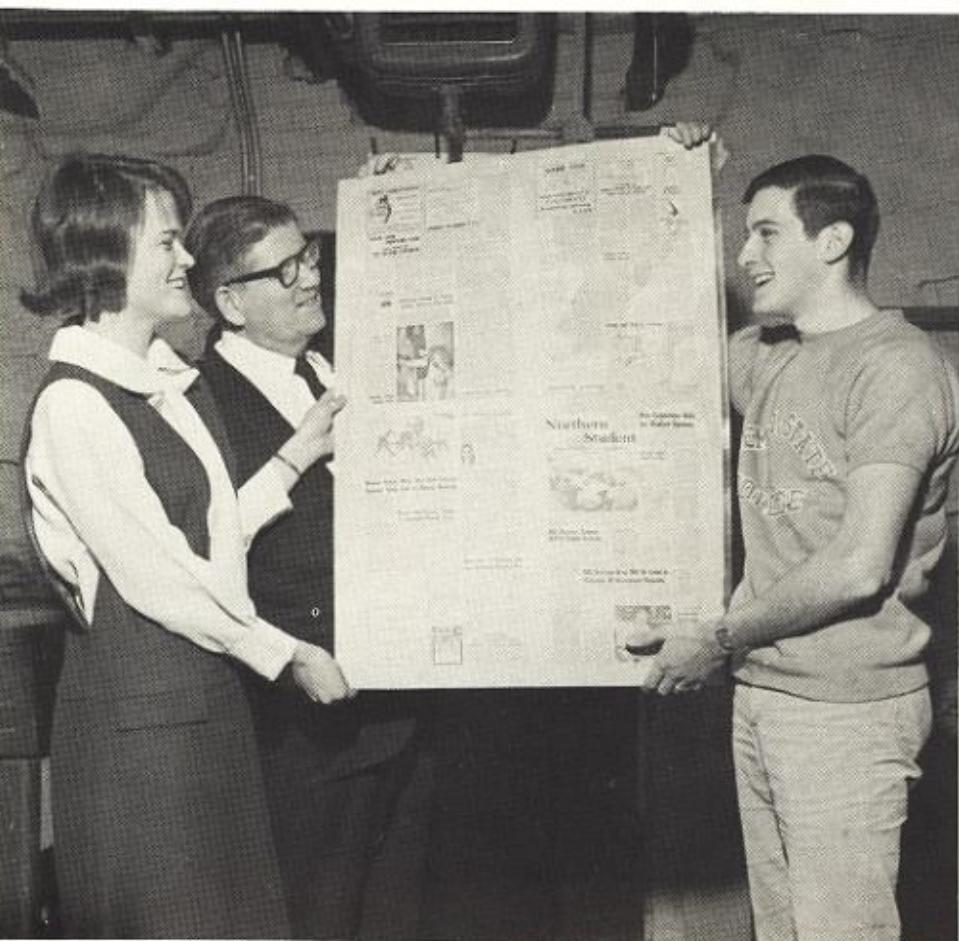

Campus Analysis was originated in 1963 by Jim Ball and Marvin Swenson and received official college recognition the following year. Campus Analysis has steadily grown into a one-hour radio program devoted to the study of college life. Under the present direction of Norm Nelson and Roger Cronk, Campus Analysis serves to present the spectrum of college activities, problems, and attitudes.

Northern Student

The B.S.C. newsletter the "Northern Student" enjoyed its most prolific year. The "Northern Student" received an American Collegiate Press First Class Award and a Columbia Collegiate First Class Award for its journalistic productivity.

The purpose of the "Northern Student" is to bring to the student body the views and controversies of the campus, to present editorial opinion and to engage in journalistic campus criticism. It also provides journalistic experience at the undergraduate level.

During the year Bemidji State saw the addition of a closed-circuit radio station, KBSC. It is hoped that the station will soon be broadcasting FM throughout the Bemidji area.

With the new equipment for their radio station, Kris Geisen, Jim Nielsen and Jim Smith seem all tied up.

Birches And Pine Needles

Birches and Pine Needles, the Bemidji State College anthology of art, literature and music, represents the cultural fabric of the college. The anthology is published each spring and is distributed free to the student body.

Winter quarter the student body selected Mr. Arthur Lee, professor of American and world history, as lecturer of the year in a poll sponsored by the Cultural Arts Committee and the Northern Student.

Mr. Lee has served on the college faculty since 1959 when he joined the Laboratory School staff where he taught for three years. In 1962 he left to attend the University of Wisconsin where he took his Master's of Arts degree. He is currently working on his doctor's degree at the University of North Dakota.

Concert And Lecture Series

Dr. Houston Smith welcomed by Prof Fenske.

The 1966 Cultural Arts Series of concerts and lectures presented BSC students with many nationally and internationally famous talents. David Bar-Illan, a young Israeli pianist, started the series. Lecturers presented were such notable personalities as general S. L. A. Marshall, who spoke on avoiding a nuclear war; Dr. Ashley Montagu, championing the "Natural Superiority of Women"; Dr. Houston Smith, a professor of philosophy at M.I.T.; and Thomas B. Ross, the Washington correspondent for the Chicago Sun Times. The series was well received and will be continued next year.

Norwegian Festival Orchestra Comes To B S C.

The Norwegian Festival Orchestra, the only symphonic group that has performed for 200 consecutive years, appeared in concert at Bemidji State College physical education building on February 3rd. The Bemidji tour was included in the orchestra's first tour of the United States.

The "Norsk Musikselsk Harmonien" as the Orchestra is known in Europe, is the official orchestra of the city of Bergen, Norway and the orchestra in residence at Bergen's International Festival. At one time it was conducted by Edvard Grieg; violinist Ole Bull also made his first public appearance with the group.

Each year the city of Bergen celebrates the memory of Grieg and Bull along with other cultural giants such as Henrik Ibsen and Björnsterne Björnson with the internationally famed festival of music and drama.

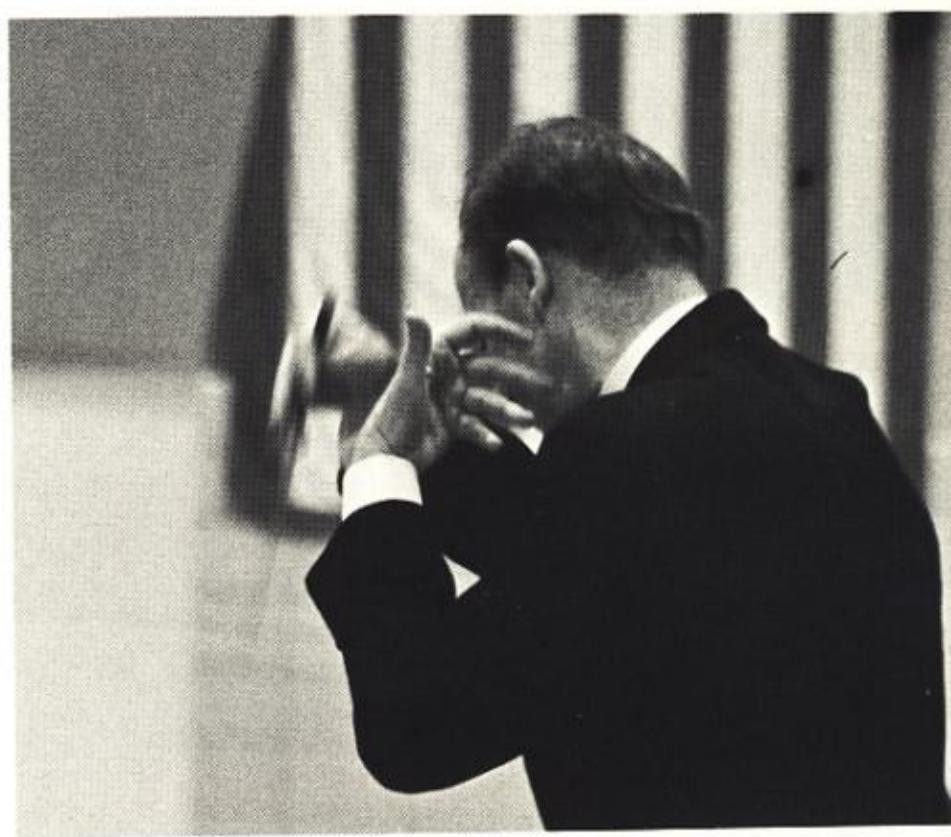

Guest conductor Øivin Fjelstad opened the program with the Star Spangled Banner and the Norwegian National Anthem. Nineteenth Century romantic music "Romeo and Julie Symphonic Poem," "Op. 18," by Johan Svendsen, was the first concert selection of the evening.

Maestro Karsten Andersen, the resident director of the orchestra, came to the podium next. Andersen and the orchestra gave a spirited reading of "Sinfonia Dolorsa" by Harald Saevrud. To close the first half of the concert, two selections from "The Walter Goblin Suite" by Johan Halvorsen, were presented. A highlight of these pieces was a solo played on a Hardanger Fiddle, an instrument like a violin, but with four extra strings that vibrate sympathetically to produce a richer tone.

Concluding the program was the performance of Grieg's "Piano Concerto in A minor," with Robert Riefling, soloist. An indication of the crowd's approval were the three standing ovations and three delightful encores to bring a wonderful evening of music to an end.

The appearance of this orchestra in Bemidji was underwritten by a committee of 50 patrons whose aim it was to bring one big cultural event to the area this past year.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Just mention the word "party" and you'll find Bemidji Staters ready to go. Through the year there are such formal dances as Homecoming, winter formal, Woodchopper's Ball, and spring formal. In addition to these four big events, there are weekly "Beaver Slides" and "Beaver Stomps," which feature recorded music and live bands.

Special costume parties such as the traditional

"Sadie Hawkins' Day" dance (held, of course, on that fateful November 23rd) and the pajama party serve as a change of pace during that long, cold Minnesota winter on a snow-covered campus. Bemidji State also abound with numerous "strike" parties, fraternity dances, which are always well-attended and immensely enjoyed by the students.

For the college freshman dormitory living is the initial break from the home. Here he discovers the meaning of responsibility, cooperation, and independence. Responsibility to oneself...co-operation with a group...independence from the confines of parental control...

The awesome assumption of responsibility is the hallmark of off-campus living. Here, one is removed from the constant observation of superiors. Meals must be prepared, clothes must be washed, apartments must be cleaned. The student discovers maturity is a quality not found within the confines of a classroom or in the cipherings of a book—rather maturity is to be found in experience...the experience of discovering one's self.

For the young shall dream dreams, love their loves, pursue their ideals...with the enthusiasm and idealism of youth great within them, they embark on their journey...but in time the dreams are sometimes shattered...lovers turn false....idealism becomes cruel reality. Yet these things are never really lost for life itself is composed of dreams...of loves...of hopes...

COOPERATION

Editor

Paul Denman

Through active school spirit one learns one of the most important facets of life—that of cooperating with one's fellow man. As spirit unites student with student, it unites the student with his school. Spirit is not a gift granted to the student, but rather the end result of personal pursuit and longing for spirit. For through this development, the student becomes an intrical part of his college...then the college becomes more than just a collection of buildings...it becomes an experience in itself...

"A sound body and a sound mind go hand-in-hand."

Plato

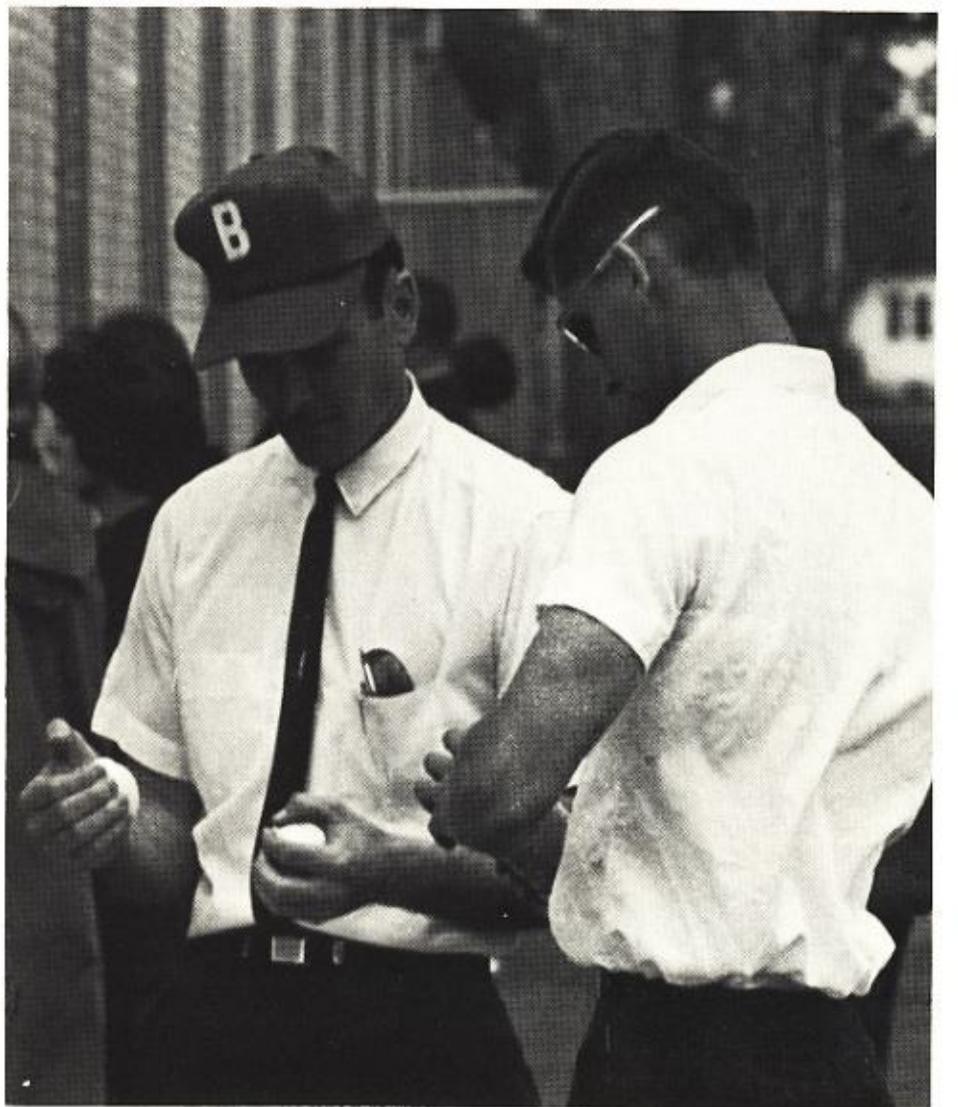

Athletics involves the coupling of the mind and the body in an expression of active competition; often the combination may be poetic, tragic, and/or, determined. It is cooperation left to its most rhythmic beauty. Athletic competition is representative of a college's self to an entire nation. The athletics of BSC give something for the entire school to be proud of.

The BSC tennis team, for being very young and inexperienced, has had an excellent year, and has shown many fine prospects for the coming seasons. BSC was host to the N.I.C. tournament, in which the team placed fourth in competition. Coach Arlynn Anderson has high hopes for a first place team with the ambitious players he now has.

The 1965 Baseball season was hampered by poor weather which limited outdoor practice. The precise weaknesses and strengths were unknown. Because more than half the team is returning, Coach Montebello has great expectations for the 1966 season.

Standing: Al Zimmerman, Ray Sauer, Jim Demyem, Curt Johnson. Kneeling: Coach Hogeland, Ed Sauer

The Bemidji State College golf team had one of its most successful seasons in the history of BSC golf, taking first place and several second place finishes.

The highlights of the season were the winning of the BSC Invitational and the 12th place finish in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics Tournament.

Bemidji State had largely what might be termed a rebuilding year in track, with head coach Vic Weber depending on a few stars from last year, and budding newcomers to bring the Beavers through.

The Beavers had their first action in an indoor meet at Moorhead State, taking fourth place behind SCS, MSC, and Northern State. Fleet John Kopari, had three firsts, including a new fieldhouse record.

Other meets saw the Beavers placing third in UND's Invitational, seventh in the BSC Invitational, second in the BSC Triangular, second in the District 13 meet, and sixth in the NIC meet.

Individual stars for BSC were John Kopari, newcomer John Lilja in the 440 intermediate hurdles, and pole vaulter Al Oman.

Bemidji State's cross country team, under the helm of head coach Robert Montebello, put in a respectable showing for the 1965 season, placing high in several meets, and capturing one.

The Beaver thinclads finished fifth out of eight teams in their own BSC Invitational, after practicing for only two weeks. The high point of the meet was the running of Mel Johnson and Vern Simpson.

Bemidji State faced UND, then took first place at a triangular, beating Bethel, and River Falls State. The BSC runners also were eighth out of twelve teams in the NDSU Invitational. Top runners were Mel Johnson and Vern Simpson.

If the Northern Intercollegiate Conference had a pre-season favorite for the football championship title, it was Bemidji State. The Beavers had most of their lettermen coming back, and their rugged offensive and defensive lines, plus a talented backfield made them the team to beat.

After a miserable start, losing to North Dakota, 20-6, and NAIA champion St. John's, 7-0, the Beavers absorbed still another setback, 22-20, in the first NIC encounter against Winona. However, they bounced back to rock St. Cloud, 14-6, and Mankato in the homecoming game, 20-14. Moorhead State upset the Beavers, 14-7, to put them out of the title picture. BSC's sweetest victory came when they squeezed by Michigan Tech, 9-8, to claim a tie for second place in the NIC with Winona and Mankato. Bemidji State trounced LeCrosse, 24-14, in the last game of the season for a 4-4 season record.

Coach

Anderson

Retires

Chester Anderson, who had reigned as head football coach at Bemidji State from 1955 to 1965, surprised everyone at BSC with the announcement of his retirement from the job last November.

Anderson felt that he couldn't handle both head jobs of football and wrestling, and decided to stick to the mat sport.

Chet's over-all record with the Beavers during the past decade has been 44 victories, 34 losses, and six ties, which was one of the NIC's best records. Under Chet's tenure, the Beavers shared the NIC crown three times, in 57, 58 and 59.

The pucksters reeled off three straight victories, including a sweep over highly regarded St. Cloud early in the season. The Beavers bested St. Cloud 2-1, and 5-4 in overtime.

St. Mary's defending Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference champion, gave the Beavers their first loss, 5-4 in overtime. The Beavers, however, bounced back to sweep a series from Lakehead University at Port Arthur, Ontario, beating the Canadians 5-1, and 8-7 in overtime. Bemidji State took over two more games from St. Cloud, 5-1, and 4-1, for their seventh win as the season progressed.

Several players on the ice squad were outstanding. Prolific scorers included Jim Thompson, Bernie Woods, Rich Budge, Dwayne Ring, and others. Goalie Tom Bend put in some excellent performances for the Beavers in the nets. Head coach Victor Weber had praise for his icemen, and mentioned that they improve with every contest.

Graduating Seniors: Bernard Woods, Bob Johnson, Jerry Ryan, Rich Budge, Jim Thompson.

Bemidji State's gymnasts had one of the finest seasons in the school's history. An early season match saw the Beavers trip Western Illinois University, the defending NAIA champion, at Macomb, Illinois. The Beavers also put in some fine showings at the Midwest Open, and at a meet with WIU and the University of Minnesota.

Entering the third year of intercollegiate swimming, head swim coach Don Palm predicted the best season yet for BSC's tankers. The swim team made him look like a prophet!

The Beaver swimmers mowed down some nine teams in a row by mostly large scores, before they bowed to NAIA champ Macalester late in the season, for their first loss. The Beavers received some well-earned praise from the Scots when they said the Beavers were one of the toughest teams they had faced.

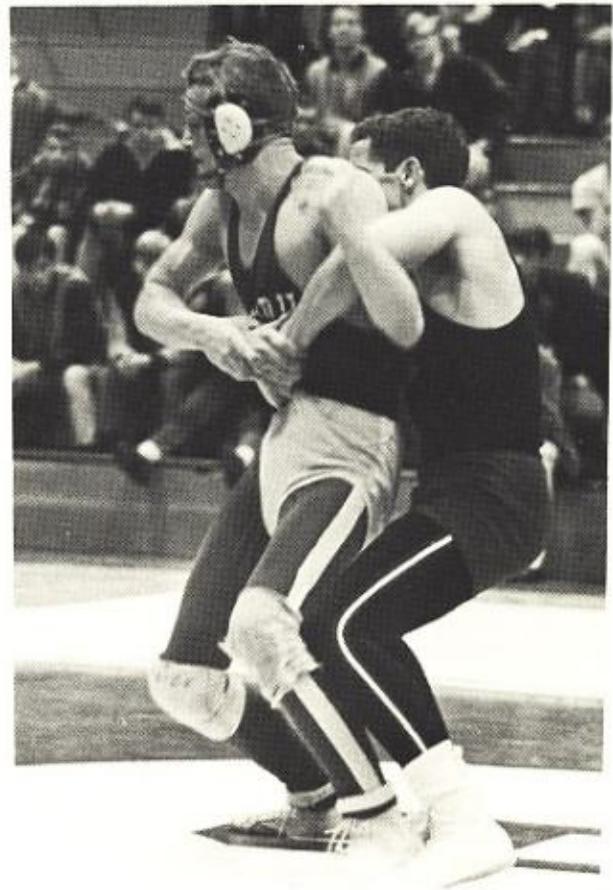

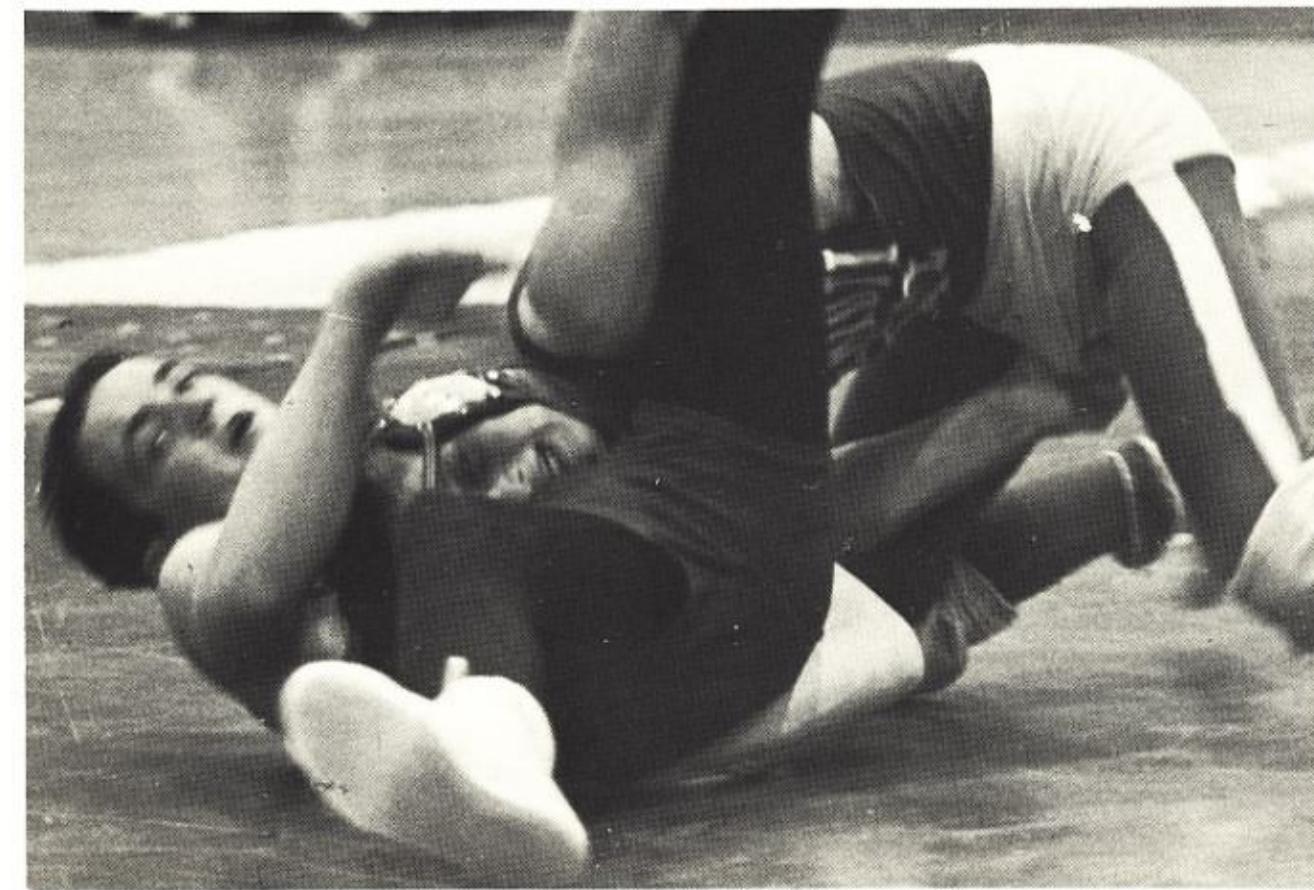

The Beavers had several candidates for NIC and NAIA honors: Don McIlroy, Joe Riddle, Bill Hanmer, and Chuck Kirsch.

Green was the word for Bemidji State's 1965-66 wrestling team. The Beavers lost tough Bob Frick and Mike Hanlon from the mat wars of last year, and had to depend on inexperienced freshmen in many of the weights, although a number of lettermen returned.

Head wrestling coach Chet Anderson mentioned that this year's team would "form a pretty good nucleus for next year and years to come."

The return of former 167 lb. NIC champion Tom Detschman gave impetus to the Beaver matmen, along with several exceptional freshmen grapplers, headed by Wayne Gysland, Dale Granger, and Steve Larson.

The NIC is one of the toughest small college conferences in the United States, and the Beavers had to struggle through a season against many of the NIC's best.

The 1965-66 edition of Bemidji State's Basketball team was heralded by Beaverland fans as being one of the finest quints in the college's history. The Beavers were also thought, at the beginning of the season, to be the prime challengers for the Northern Intercollegiate Conference Basketball crown along with St. Cloud State, but two defeats to the rugged Huskies, by a close margin at St. Cloud, and by a much larger score at Bemidji, plus a disheartening home loss to Winona, put BSC out of the title picture.

The Beavers, after winning their first contest of the season, lost an overtime contest to UMD, then proceeded to go seven games without a loss, before bowing to St. Cloud. Behind the scoring punch of seniors Dave Odegaard and Jerry Wilmot, the Beavers built a 12-4 record going into the final stretch of the season. Newcomer Steve Miller, Norm Manselle, and all-conference guard Mark Carlin were the other Beaver starters who contributed so much to one of the finest seasons.

A fresh frosh, away from home, learning the ropes of the college curriculum, is soon a second year student. Sporting the traditional "sophomoric" attitude, he reaches the halfway mark and is soon on the next-to-the-last step to graduation. In three short years, that freshman who was just starting his college career is finishing his junior year.
