FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

C. R. Sattgast

President

It is difficult indeed for one to express full gratitude for the privilege of serving a student body, a faculty and a staff of the high quality shown on these pages. This annual can only partially express the exalted feeling of well-being which normally develops through associations in this community of free scholars. The flow of ideas, the unbounded good will, the zest for work and accomplishment, the attractive surroundings have created at Bemidji State College a campus tone which emanates from every phase of college life and penetrates the lives of every participant. It is a pleasure to work with you.

Class of 1958

Accomplishments can be measured only through the realization of advancement and as we, the class of 1958, advanced through the years at Bemidji State College, we saw the enrollment of the college practically double, we saw it change from a teachers' college to a full fledged state college, we have experienced a growth in ourselves that only four years at BSC could give us. We thank the college for what it has given us and we hope the college will always have occasion to be proud of the class of 1958.

"Knowledge Is Power"

Library stacks, plus students plus classroom plus teacher equal the academic side of days spent at Bemidji State College. The transition of the printed word from books pictured to the left to us as we are pictured through this book spells knowledge which will give us the power to build a better community for those who follow us through life . . .

Ah-Mic Staff

This is the second consecutive year Bemidji State College has published a school yearbook and through the enthusiasm shown by the staff as it rallied around Lois Moore and Roger Schmaus the book quickly took shape. The College photo club was responsible for the majority of the photography while faculty photos and certain major activity pictures were donated by Hakkerup's Studio. The staff wishes to thank the BSC students for their cooperation whild producing this book.

Producing the 1958 Ah-mic was fun and work as can be seen by this shot of the policy making group of the staff as they planned the year's activities. Deadlines were met on time due to many late hours spent by the make-up staff, but the satisfaction of meeting these deadlines more than offset the tiring hours spent in planning, cutting, typing, and cropping.

1957 Homecoming

It was a gala Homecoming for BSC grads as they saw the Beaver grid squad tip a favored Moorhead squad; but of no small consequence was the parade, coronation ball, and Homecoming dance. Reigning over the festivities was lovely Queen Charlene Antos from Bemidji, while Barbara Droppo and Priscilla Fleener lent additional loveliness to the throne as princesses.

Dr. and Mrs. Clark, faithful faculty supporters of all college events, take advantage of coronation ball music.

George Semchuk as Paul and Janice Hanson as Carrie ruled as royalty over the action-packed week, which is perhaps the biggest event of the year.

Ensembles and solos stem from the choir, such as the Bemidji Belles and the double quartet, providing opportunities for further development. The year's program includes a number of concerts, highlighted by the annual Christmas concert and the Easter oratorio. The choir also arranges tours to high schools of the surrounding area.

Biweekly became the by-word of Northern Student staff members this year as the paper was transformed from a monthly publication. Ed Gutman, editor, tackled the job of expanding the paper with competence, and by midyear the paper was appearing sprightly and more newsy than ever.

Advertising was another stepping stone touched this year with Kay Johnson organizing a business staff for the expanding newspaper.

Cheerleaders

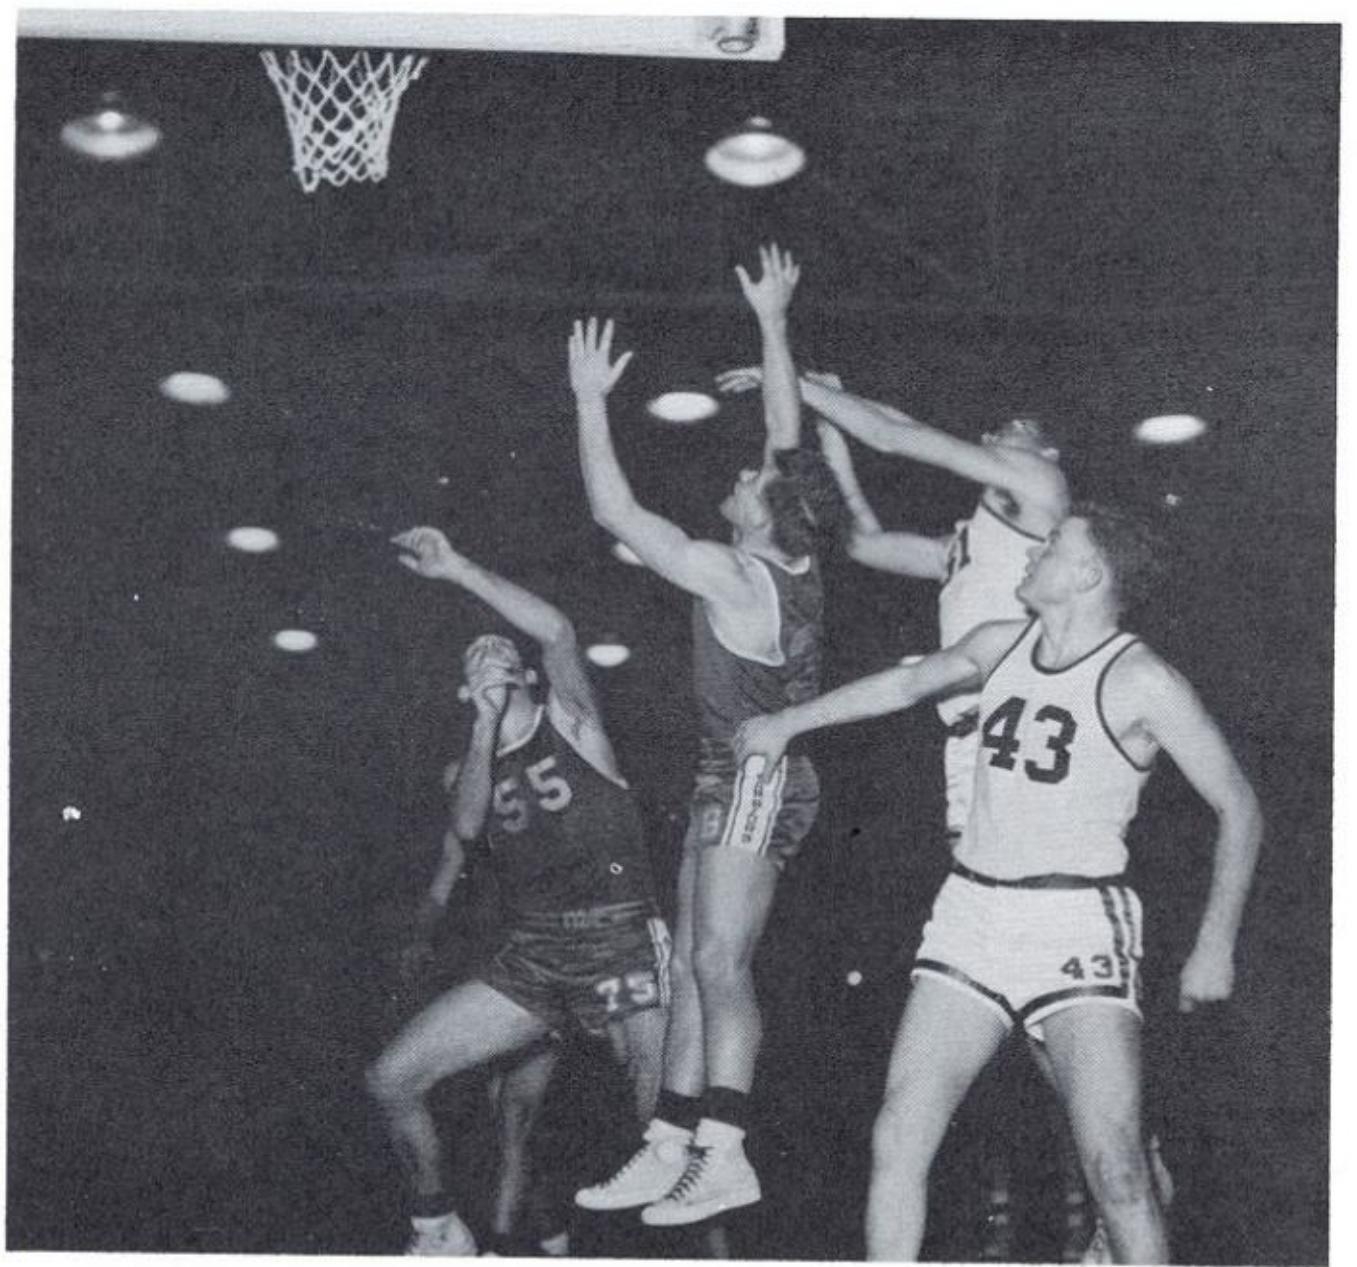

Led by enthusiastic Muggs Bowers, four year veteran of the college yell squad, the comely quintet of cheerleaders aided Beaver athletic clusters with their loyalty and aggressiveness which was matched only by the great Beaver teams. Much credit for athletic successes should go to this group who through many afternoons of practice, brought to the gridiron, basketball court, and other college sport scenes a quality of showmanship that is worthy of BSC.
