AH-MIC

published by the students of
BEMIDJI STATE COLLEGE
BEMIDJI MINNESOTA

Foreword

Hi there! So glad you dropped by to visit with me and my family. The smiles that will greet you from these pages wish to welcome each stranger, and to revive happy memories for my alumni. I hope you enjoy your visit. Please come back as often as you like. By the way, can I help you in any way while you are here? If so, let's talk about it as we move along. I want you to meet my family.

The name of the yearbook is Ah-Mic. Sounds something like an Irish sneeze, doesn't it? Actually, it's the Chippewa name for our school symbol — the Beaver.

I have suffered great losses this year. The Almighty has reclaimed two members of my faculty who have been instrumental in my physical and spiritual growth. Their many years of loyal service will be a source of inspiration to my present and future faculty. The multitude of students who have passed through their classrooms will always remember them for their high ideals and their worthwhile contributions to the teaching profession. The memories of Miss Alice Fredrickson and Mr. Calvin McClintock will remain with me forever.

Dedication

For guidance and leadership in developing the teacher training program in the women's physical education department . . . in recognition for her 31 years of loyal service to her college . . . for her valuable contributions in the field of women's physical education which culminated in making this a major study area at Bemidji State College . . . for her scholarship . . . for her friendly smile and helping hand . . . for her interest in the generations of students who have known and respected her . . . for the inspiration she has given so many men and women who are today's leaders . . . to our friend and teacher, Miss Elsie Annis, we dedicate the 1959 Ah-Mic.

FACULTY and ADMINISTRATION

C. R. Sattgast

President

The Bemidji State College is known throughout the land as the friendly college. The term "friendly college" was created by the students who preceded you here and who are now a friendly alumni group. They provide a solid base of friendship and good will which spreads the reputation of Bemidji State College to all citizens of our state.

This friendship, however, is more than building a reputation for the college. You will find that the friendships established while you are in college are not momentary or transitory, but are permanent, and many will endure throughout life.

In these pages are the photographs and the biographies of those students and faculty members who made your college life worthwhile. The book also contains photographs and brief descriptions of the groups, the clubs, the teams, and the activities of which you were a part. Keep it in memory of your friendship days in a friendly college.

Class of 1959

Each year graduation is a source of joy and sorrow for me. Joy because some of my family have stayed until they have become of age and are now ready to go out into the world and give others a full measure of my teaching. Sorrow because I have grown fond of them during their brief stay with me and circumstances may keep many of them from returning to visit me. Graduates, I bid you farewell. May each of you experience the success and happiness that you rightfully deserve.

Halfway along any journey is always a happy point and halfway through a college career is no exception. I've shared two years of happiness with the class of 1961, and I'll be looking forward to sharing two more delightful years with one of the most congenial groups it has been my pleasure to know.

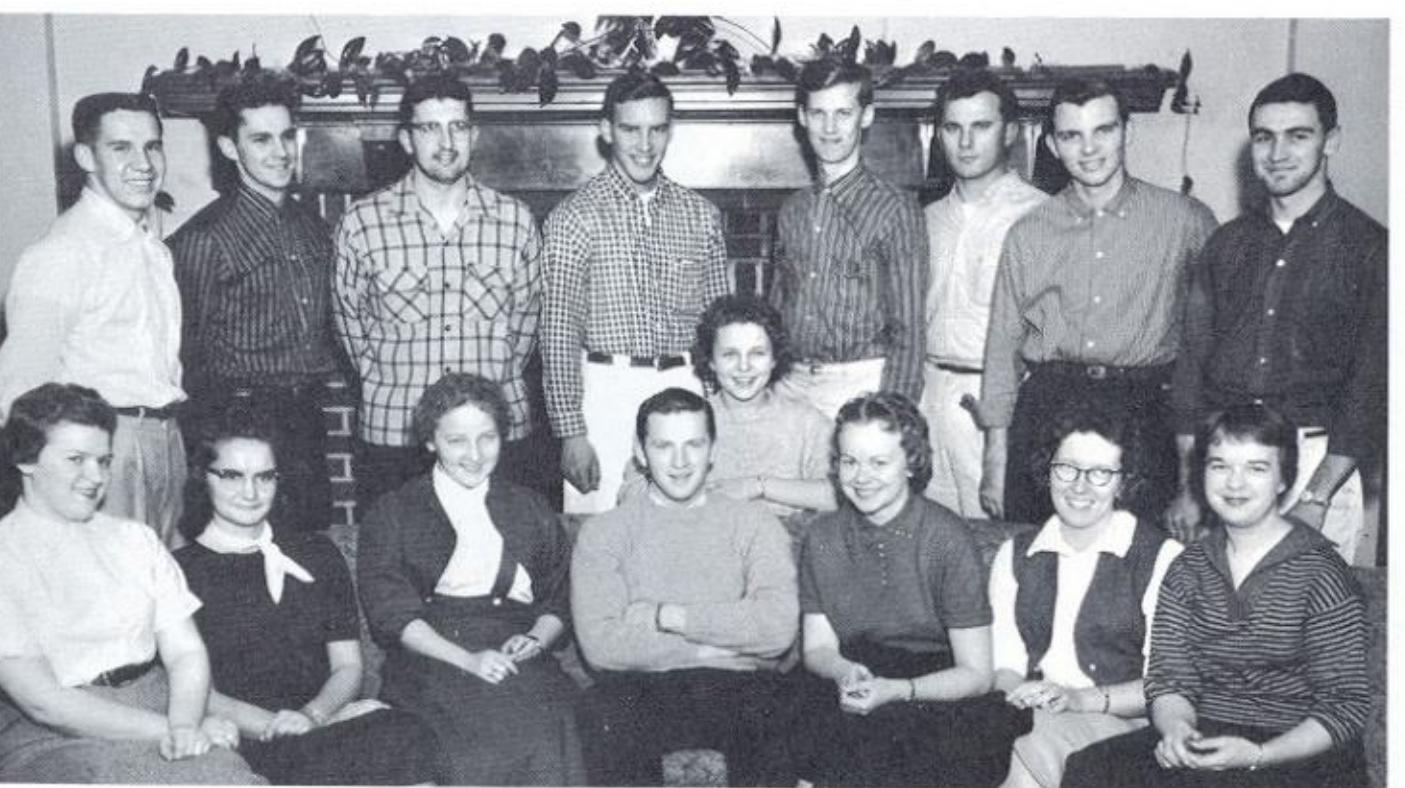

Judith Dale, President; Sandra Miller, Secretary; Ralph Shoemaker, Vice President; Robert Westby, Treasurer.

“B” Club

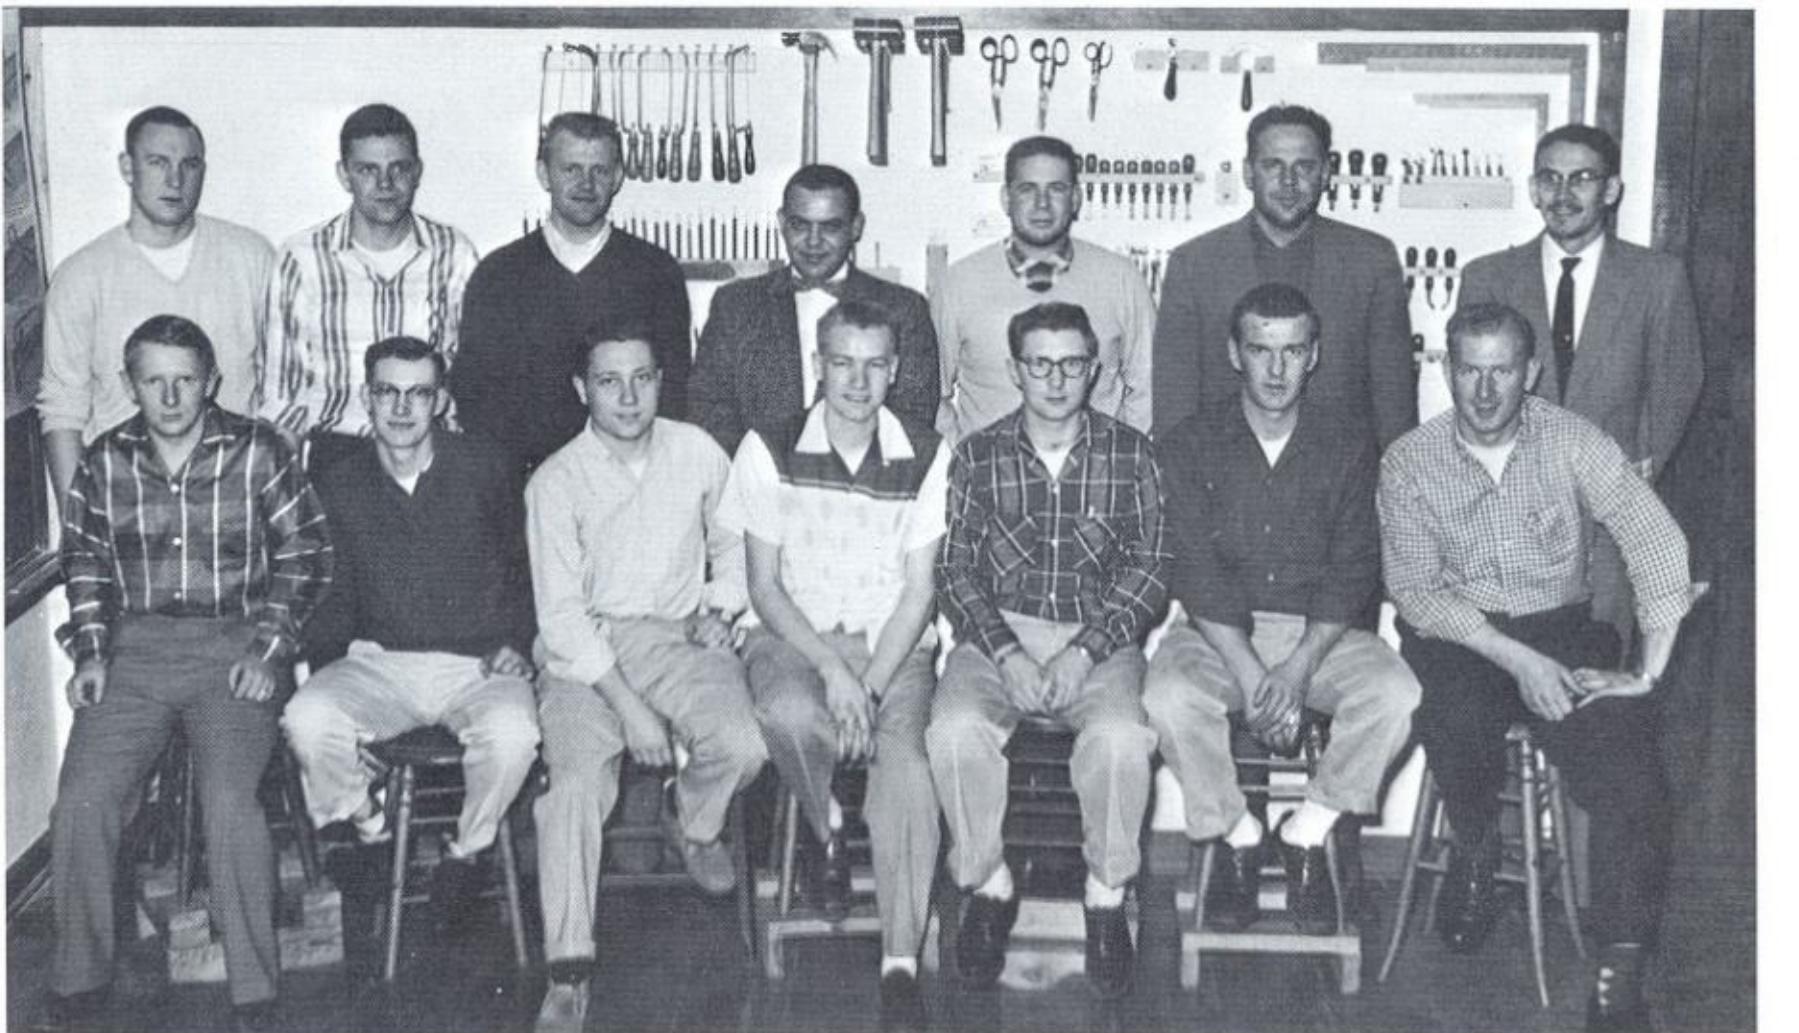

College lettermen join together to form a group dynamic in many aspects of college activity. They contribute their efforts to such events as Homecoming, Freshman Week, Paul Bunyan Week, and the Beaver Relays. Academic advancement is promoted by their awarding a scholarship to a promising freshman athlete.

Women's Recreation Association

Variety is the spice of the Women's Recreation Association life. In addition to the planning and directing of the women's intramural program, the club activities include hikes, the Sadie Hawkins Party, a spring carnival, and the Play Day for colleges of the state. Membership in the organization is open to all college women.

Producing the 1959 Ah-Mic was a challenge readily accepted by an eager staff led by Cheryl Barrette and Kermit Anderson. Make-up was directed by Janice Hoyt while photography was done by the college photo club under the leadership of Richard Hobson, Philip Sauer, John Mitchell and Donald Haaversen. Faculty photos and certain activity shots were printed through the cooperation of Hakkerup's Studio. The staff wishes to thank BSC students for their cooperation in producing this book.

Development of vocal music is the prime objective of the choir under the direction of Carl O. Thompson. The group masters the a cappella method of singing, and from the main group come several ensembles, such as the Bemidji Belles and the Men's Quartet, as well as a number of soloists. Highlighting the year's work were the Christmas program, the Easter oratorio, and several concerts presented at various high schools in the area.

Intramurals

Under the direction of the late H. J. "Jolly" Erickson, football, basketball, softball, golf, bowling, curling and volleyball were on the intramural program this year. Anyone who was not a varsity team member in that particular sport was eligible to participate in the program.

Cross Country

Coached by Bob Montebello the Beaver Cross Country Harriers turned in an enviable record when they tipped Moorhead in a dual meet, ran second in a five college meet at the NDAC Invitational, ran second to NDAC in a triangular, and placed third in the NSCC.

Receiving letters were Captain Fred Baker, Gerald Brekke, Melvin Fox, David Kahl, Frank Mihelich, Rodney Pietila, and Edward Wiebe.

Winter means fun at Bemidji State College and variety is no small dimension of this fun. Students ski, curl, skate, fish, and the meek even find that cardboard sliding on ski-day has its chills and thrills.

SPRING

Dave Sigado instructs his base runners to take a lead as Jim Lawrence covers first base in a Beaver baseball practice session.

Baseball

Climatic conditions forced the baseball team to get off to a late start last spring, but with an enthusiastic squad Coach Harry Fritz played out the season with an undeserved 0–16 record. Many of the games were lost by the narrow one run decision.

Track

Earning track letters were Dean Gilchrist, Elman Johnson, Russ Hatheway, Mel Rosholt, Joe Suman, Fred Baker, Bill Wagner, Len Yiska, Dennis Carlson, Gerry Green, Dave Kahl, and Rod Pietilia.

Golf

Though trailing in conference play, the Beaver golf squad developed well. Earning letters were Kenneth Erickson, Gary Douglas, Don Forsell, John Mitchell, and Merlyn Holm.

Tennis

Beaver netmen came in third in conference play and bowed only to North Dakota Aggies and Concordia in their respective conferences. Earning letters were Gerald Freudenberg, John Schmit, Harold Feldman, Paul Granovsky, (pictured) and Frank Saccoman.

For three seasons of the year I have a beautiful campus, but in the spring this beauty is accentuated even more with outdoor classes by beautiful Lake Bemidji, picnics, and outings.

H. J. "Jolly" Erickson

Paul Bunyan Week at Bemidji State College was dampened by an aura of sadness this year. Its founder and the man who, probably more than any other person, perpetuated its development to a college tradition, died as festivities were about to begin.

H. J. "Jolly" Erickson, coach, teacher, and friend, saw the college grow during his 21 years here. Because of his contribution to this growth, Bemidji State College now has one of the strongest physical education programs in the state.

The kind, soft-voiced, Paul Bunyan-like man may be gone, but his enviable coaching record and the high standards he stood for will live on in the memory of Beaver alumni and Northern Minnesota sports people for all time.
