Foreword

Fall, 1960 — a time
not to forget.
The expansion of BSC — the crowning of Queen Gail.
November eighth — Mr. Nixon and Mr. Kennedy — one had to lose — one to win.
The knee-tickler and knee-highs became the fad. From Room 200 “Mrs. Antrobus — Gladys” — and peals of laughter.

On the football field
a team tries desperately to gain a first down —
And there will be new things to come —
All to be memories — memories to be cherished and not forgotten

MR. CARL O. THOMPSON

Dedication

For years of devoted service as a teacher and friend;
For planning and arranging countless enjoyable student convocations;
For constantly upholding the finest qualities of the teaching profession;
For directing many fine and beautiful concerts and oratorios;
For pioneering in the field of elementary music;
For being such an inspiring example of teacher, musician, citizen and friend
We dedicate our 1961 Ah-Mic to you — Carl O. Thompson.

ADMINISTRATION

C. R. SATTGAST, PRESIDENT

Difficult problems — many decisions — diplomacy — These are the tasks that face a college president And with his constant smile — ready conversation — And real interest in students — Talking with us over coffee in the union — Walking down the sidewalk — Or attending important meetings — He is constantly meeting these tasks

Seniors

Fall — 1957 — we were confused — homesick —
Happy. We anticipated a new life —
And now — four years later —
we wait eagerly and sadly. Eagerly for the diplomas. Sadly for we leave behind friends —
friends who will remain with us in our hearts and in our memories.

Juniors

Settled down with intense concentration you who will be next year's seniors — take a job and do it well. Into your hands falls the task of passing on the leadership and responsibility to the succeeding class.

CLASS '63

They call you the wise fools — and so you are.

No longer new to college life — yet you are still exploring — your futures — your vocations — and yourselves.

ACTIVITIES

1960 Homecoming Queen
Gail Rogers

Queen Gail
Our Queen — her week —
The coronation ball —
The winning of the Beautiful crown —
Riding through the crowd cheering at the parade —
And finally the triumphant Game — the game they won for Her.

The Queen and her court; Twile Larson,
Elaine Heather, Ilona Kekkonen, Queen
Gail, Joann Stueck, Lola Baker.

Homecoming

Hilarious skits at convo —
Long Hours Building — Building floats on borrowed trailers in cold garages —
And then the parade
With marching bands and clowns and girls riding in convertibles.
A dance
And a well-fought game Won

Bemidji State College Band.

Freshmen hazing.

Little Las Vegas.

Sadie Hawkins

Girls ask their favorite fellow —
A night of fun —
The girls opening doors and picking up the tabs —
Crazy Dogpatch
costumes — and couples reminiscent of Lil' Abner and Daisy Mae —
And eager girls searching for Marryin' Sam

Christmas Formal

Winter scenes —
Like Currier and Ives —
A giant Christmas tree
With glittering balls —
And old-fashioned caroling.
Girls in new dresses —
Looking about with Shiny Eyes —
While the band plays
softly with Saxophones

Freshman Week

All those Green
Beanies
Worn two-fingers
Above the eye
The talent show —
Displaying the Talents of the Class of '64. The crowning of King Craig and Queen Judy — The Representatives of the Freshman Class —
The beginning of four
Hard and exciting years.

Beanie King and Queen, Judy Jaycox and Craig Canedy.

Hit it boy!

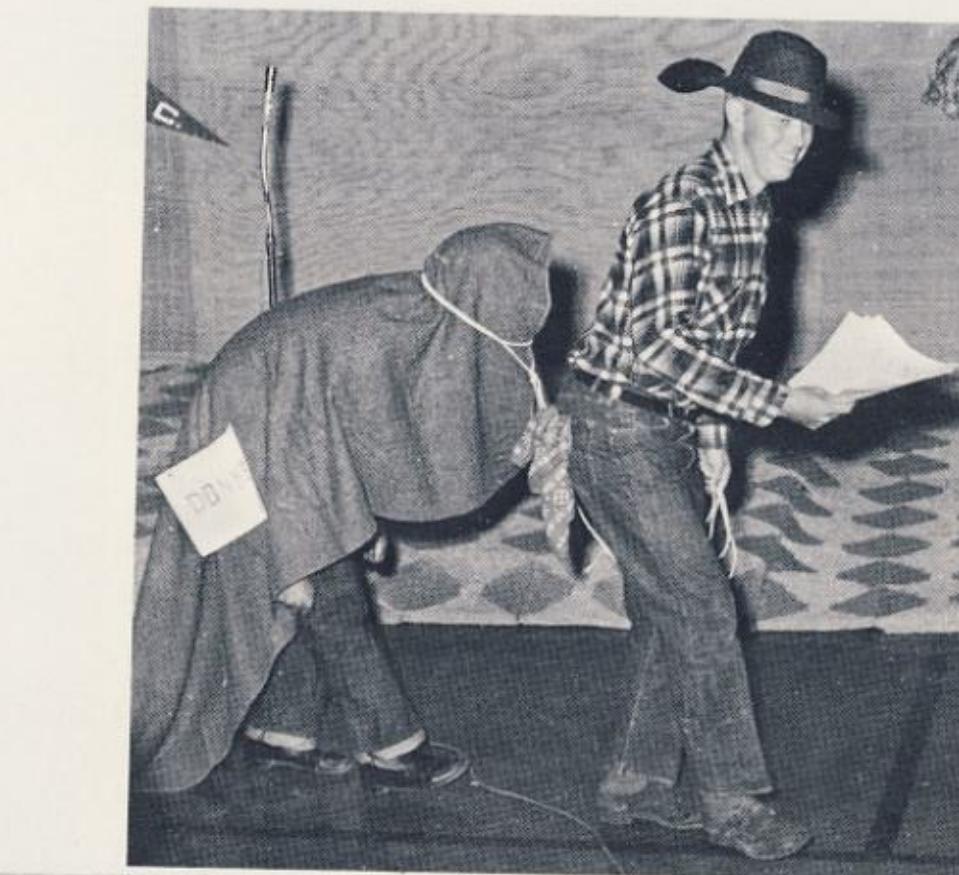

Scratch . . . scratch.

Waa! . . .

"Hang down your head Tom Dooley"

Patience, Jackass, Patience

Sno Ball

The Sno Ball —
A mid-winter dance —
With a multi-colored
Snow ball hanging
From the ceiling —
Ski sweaters and
Slacks — Sno Ball
Royalty — King Louie
And Queen Elaine

Sno Ball King and Queen, Louie Witt and Elaine Beiswenger. Left: Social Commissioner, Kathy Clementson, gives last minute instructions to band director, Larry Schroth, while Elaine and Louie look on.

1960 grads, Leona Liupakka and Ozzie Tollefson, poke fun at their favorite instructors.

Senior Convo

No more rulers —
No more books —
No more teachers —
We give them a few Dirty digs — it's
All in fun —
At senior convo —
A touch of satire and Humor — along with
The serious business
Of graduation

Paul Bunyan Week

Skit convo to introduce Candidates — The voting —
And the counting —
Paul and Carrie —
Millie and Red
Reigning over Paul Bunyan
Week — 1961

The crowning of Paul and Carrie — Harold "Red" Aasby and Millie Towata; both were sponsored by Birch Hall.

Red and Millie pose by snow sculpture

The winning candidates are awarded with pewter steins.

The Pancake Supper — all
You can eat — Plaid
Shirts and levis —
The crowning of Paul and Carrie — Kangaroo Kourt —
A beard judging contest —
The basketball game — and The Woodchoppers Ball with Sourdough Sam — the climax and End of Paul Bunyan Week.

Ugliest Lumberjack

DeVee Hubbard and Joel Bucklen, Co-ordinators of Paul Bunyan Week. Right: "Winter Whims," an original musical presented by the Band.

The Pancake Supper sponsored by Wesley was a big success.

Fred Swenson challenges instructor Robert Frazey to a saw-the-log duel at Woodchoppers Court while judge Larry Carlson gives Fred a hand.

Winners of the beard contest were Bill Collard, best; Dave Lindberg, peach fuzz; Karl Sauer, shaggiest; Bruce Watson, scuzziest; and Phil St. Louis, longest.

At skit convo Larry Schroth and Marv Wilt "Ham-it-up" for band's candidates. Below: Joe Amato and Louie Witt battle for choir.

Themselves.
Goodbye to Number 29 —
The galloping ghost of
The backfield —
And to Number 58 —
The iron man of the Beaver line.
And good luck to the Boys who will wear
These numbers
In the future.
